SAA is bringing you a world-class Lounge unlike any other

We are in the process of revamping and refurbishing our world-class departures Lounge to offer an even more premium, luxury experience. While we are under construction, we ask our eligible Premium customers to kindly bear with us and make use of our new Temporary Lounge, located in the domestic departures terminal, D gates.

Know your hand luggage allowance?

The amount of hand luggage you are allowed to bring on board will depend on the class you are flying. Business Class allows two pieces, while Economy Class allows one piece, each weighing no more than 8kg.

April. A month made for the holidays.

The first weekend of April is hugged by holidays. So avoid long queues over the extra-long weekend and book your family holiday early with SAA. And if you take four days off work, you get no less than ten days of holiday! What better way to treat the family to a great get-away before winter sets in?

Remember to check-in online at flysaa.com and skip the queues at the airport.
