MAY 2015

A SPECIAL MONTH FOR SPECIAL PEOPLE

Dear {FIRSTNAME} {LASTNAME}

Enjoy the long weekend tomorrow, that's right, Worker's Day is going to embrace us with a long weekend. Which means it's the perfect time to visit distant family or friends. It's also the perfect time to think of what mom deserves this Mother's Day. I'm sure she has enough gowns and slippers so give her something she has never received: offer her a new experience. Just pick a destination from our featured routes. The only thing you need to prepare for is all the cheek grabbing and thank you kisses.

The chilly mornings and the frosty grass can only mean one thing, winter is coming. Make sure you are well equipped with all the keep-warm necessities because it feels like it's going to be one bitter cold winter. Another way to keep warm is visiting destinations like London, Abu Dhabi or New York. There are a number of European and North American summer destinations ready for your hibernation.

PLEASE ENJOY OUR NEW OFFERS THIS MONTH.

Unaccompanied children? That's a minor problem.

Kids can be a handful, but not at SAA. With our 'Unaccompanied minors programme' you as a parent need not worry. Minors travelling are entertained with educational activities to keep them busy throughout their flight. They will be accompanied from when they board the plane to the moment they leave, so make use of this programme and let us worry about your children.
