Exciting news for this month

Your seat. Your choice.

Whether travelling alone, or in company, we all have our seating preferences. It may be a matter of choosing between an aisle and a window seat, or making sure you are sitting with your family, or knowing you can look forward to a little extra legroom. From as little as R50, the choice will be in your hands, because SAA customers will now be able to choose where they wish to sit in advance.

From Johannesburg to China, seamlessly.

China is one of Africa's largest trading partners, and now, connecting to China and beyond will be even easier with SAA's new code share partnership with Air China. Effective 29 October 2015, you will be able to fly non-stop with SAA on the Johannesburg to Beijing route, and connect to points like Shanghai, Hangzhou, Chengdu and Chongqing, all via the Air China Network. And when you're there you'll experience a country with vast landscape where you'll find a mix of modern architecture and historical sites like the bustling Tiananmen Square, and of course, The Great Wall of China
