CELEBRATING THE YOUTH OF SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Customer,

This month we'll be celebrating Youth Day. We look into the past and remember those who fought for the rights of future generations and honour those who continue the struggle to make Africa a better place for all.

The rapid advancement and accessibility of technology grants a new generation of youth the opportunity to connect with the world. At SAA we are committed to encouraging young people to learn from the world through travel; to explore new opinions, ideas, and to engage with new cultures.

We believe there is no limit to the potential of our youth, and we're ready to help them get there. Happy Youth Day.

Keep reading to discover some exciting events and specials that we are promoting in celebration of Youth Day.

Kind regards

SAA News

SAA Cargo bags another award

South African Airways Cargo is proud to have been voted Best Cargo Airline-Africa by the readers of Air Cargo News. The Gala is held at the Lancaster London Hotel and was hosted by British comedian Stephen Mangan. Over 300 industry experts attended the annual gala event where the air cargo industry gathers to recognise the very best of the industry across 14 categories. The airline awards are based on the voting results of more than 18,000 supply chain professionals over a two-month period; we are honoured and proud to have won the award.

Events

Young Entrepreneurs Pocket Money Market

On 16 June, the V&A Waterfront will be hosting the young entrepreneurs pocket money market. This is a great opportunity for parents to help their children have fun while learning. With record unemployment levels, now is the time to nurture financial literacy and the ability to generate independent income.

Children from 3 to 16 years old can EARN, LEARN & HAVE FUN! Young traders will run their own market stalls offering a fabulous array of goods and activities. They will also complete costing, accounting, marketing and POS requirements in order to gain their certificate of participation. Free workshops will also be offered throughout the year.
